01 Amanda Buchanan Hutchison

Painting, Mixed Media, Drawing

Original framed artwork, prints and greeting cards of animal portraits and landscapes in a range of mediums from watercolour to acrylic. This welcoming working studio is set in a small mature garden, in the foothills of the Campsie Fells. The countryside and creatures around Amanda are all the inspiration she needs.

Directions: From Glasgow-driving on the A81 to Strathblane turn left onto Dumbrook Road-venue is half way down the street on the right. From Stirling-driving through Blane/Strathblane on A81 turn right onto Kirkburn Road and then right onto Dumbrook Road.

02 Lorna Mackay

Painting

Lorna is a landscape inspired painter who works regularly in her garden studio. Developing work inspired by her surroundings and the places she visits throughout the UK she uses acrylic paints and ink to communicate her love of these landscapes. Lorna's current inspirations are the areas of forestry and the trees that populate the islands on our lochs. Original paintings, limited edition prints, work in progress and sketchbooks will be exhibited.

Directions: My studio is located in Dumgoyne. If you are travelling away from Stirling on the A81, the lane to my garden studio is on the right hand side, turning before you get to the Beech Tree Inn. There is plenty of parking space. Go slow the lane is bumpy!

03 art4you Scotland - art school, studio, gallery

A spacious bright studio where people work, learn and develop creativity. Various daily art classes and weekend workshops. Painting, drawing, life drawing, portrait, ceramic, mixed media, watercolour & printmaking classes and 5-day painting summer courses for everyone to experience creativity in a creative and relaxed atmosphere.

Directions: From Stirling: Follow A811 till it ends to a crossroad. Turn left onto A81 and follow till Oakwood Garden Centre roundabout. From Glasgow: Anniesland Cross > Bearsden > Milngavie -> Strathblane. Follow A81 from Strathblane for 4.5m till Oakwood roundabout.

04 Cairnlea Art & Jaggy Thistle Stained Glass

Mixed Media, Glass

On entering the studio you will find a selection of paintings from landscapes, seascapes and abstracts, something for everyone. The stained glass work is all original, from the design to the manufacturing, it is top quality craftsmanship. Also a warm welcome, a wee cuppa and a chat.

Directions: From Drymen on the A811 pass Fraser Robbs, 1 mile on, turn right into Gartacharn Road (its signposted) we are the first house on the left. From Stirling follow the A811 towards Drymen /Ersline Bridge, 2 miles from Ballat crossroads. Turn left.

05 Frances Douglas

Painting,
Watercolour

Working from her bright and airy kitchen studio, Frances is an artist and tutor who uses watercolour in a traditional way to respond to inspiration from the changing seasons and landscapes. She focuses mainly on colour and light in scenery and enjoys using the paint in a loose and expressive way. Frances is passionate about watercolour and loves to share her enthusiasm for this captivating medium.

Directions: Approaching from Balfron village turn on to Station Road and The Gables is the third last house on the left hand side. Approaching from Balfron Station, The Gables is the third house on the right hand side as you enter Balfron. Look out for bunting. Limited off street parking.

06 Georgia Boyd

Painting, Drawing,
Mixed Media

Following on from last year, there will be figurative work and scenes from nature in this year's open studio. Colour and light are a continuing theme along with the human figure, portraiture and a celebration of nature. Alongside this, expect to see some new and quite different abstract pieces that are in progress.

Directions: Lomond studio sits at the end of the garden of Lomond House. Turn off the high street onto Station Rd. The first houses on your left are Lomond and its neighbour. Walk up the lane beside Lomond to the second gate and the studio is just behind it.

07 Yani Homfray

Mixed Media, Painting,
Drawing

Yani works at home in her studio, from the photographs to sketch book as starting points for a way of painting. Her current artworks mainly use acrylic, ink, watercolour and mixed media. The colours, textures and shapes conjure up different moods and the play of light and shadows suggest a bold and bright style.

Directions: From Stirling take the A811. Take left turn through Kippen and towards Fintry, over the hill past Balafark Farm on the B822, turn to the right to single track road, and follow the road over the hill. The studio is on the left side (White House).

08 Iona Buchanan

Painting, Giclee Prints, Moss Panels

Iona's first love is Botanical Illustration, although she now paints a wide range of wildlife, including the hares & birds that live in her garden. She works with traditional watercolour techniques and places great importance on close attention to detail to capture the essence of her subjects. Her inspiration comes mostly from her rural location and the plants and wildlife that surround her.

Directions: The best way to find us is with the What3Words app games.walled.guests We are on the back road between Balfron and Fintry, on the right angle bend, next to Harvieston Farm. Our sign post is grey and reads: Loaningside, The Kist, The Annex.

09 Katherine Cowtan Weaving, Painting, Mixed Media

Katherine originally trained as a woven textile designer and now works both as a weaver and artist. Her paintings and new colourful fine silk and cashmere scarves are inspired by the surrounding local landscapes, and are filled with colour, light and texture.

Directions: Traveling from Stirling take the A811 west then the B822 through Kippen and over the hill to Fintry. Turn left at Fintry cross. Greenvale Cottage is nearly 1 mile along the B822 heading east out of Fintry, on the left just beyond the church.

10 Sheila Patrick Basketmaking, Weaving

Sheila uses traditional basket-making techniques to create functional baskets and decorative items using mainly unstripped willow rods.

Directions: Traveling from Stirling take the A811 west then the B822 through Kippen and over the hill to Fintry. Turn left at Fintry cross. Greenvale Cottage is nearly 1 mile along the B822 heading east out of Fintry, on the left just beyond the church.

11 Kat Goldin, Jane Lindsey & Eilidh Weir Textiles, Photography, Printmaking, Mixed Media

This pop up gallery brings together local rural artists for whom land and making is an integral part of their practice. Ranging from textile and fibre based work to photography and natural dyeing, Kat Goldin (A Life in the Making), Jane Lindsey (Snapdragon Life) and Eilidh Weir (All That is Braw) will share the processes of growing, foraging, making and re-using that they employ in their lives.

Directions: Once you reach the village of Dykehead on the B8034, take the single track road road, opposite the bus stop, which is signposted Cardross Holiday Cottages (heading west) for 1.5 miles, passing Green Aspirations, to the farm at the end of the road.

Inspired by the emotional responses of wild ancient landscapes of Scotland, the artist lives in a remote part of Stirlingshire, drawing on the often dramatic ranges of colours in a never ending skyline.

Ballochleam Farm sits at the end of a track, nestling in the lea of the Gargunnock Hills and the base of the Ballochleam Spout. Truly remote, wild and exposed.

I3 Mary Mackay Painting, Drawing

Works vary in size, cards, work in browser, sketch books, framed pieces and stretched canvases.

Directions: From the A811 take either the B822 or B8037 to Kippen head westward, past the school, keep left at the Y junction, look for signs of Redgatehill leading to Davidson Lea, go down this lane following Forth Valley signage to Burnbrae. Studio in garage.

I4 Margaret Oswald Painting

Margaret is inspired by the natural world, capturing the mood and colours of a landscape in oils. From moorland to wintry mountains and bluebell woods to crashing waves, painting is the most satisfying form of expression.

Directions: Take the A811 to Kippen. Drive up the Main Street, signed for Fintry. Continue for about half a mile up through Kippen. On the Right there's a row of old white cottages. Vine Cottage is directly opposite Denovan Crescent and has blue window sills.

I5 Sarah Hill Painting, Drawing

Recent work is mainly flowers and everyday objects. Using oils and sometimes acrylic, the aim is to create beauty out of the ordinary. Colour is a preoccupation and drawing a lifetime interest. There maybe some piano playing during your visit to add interest to a day out!

I6 Michael Kay Jewellery

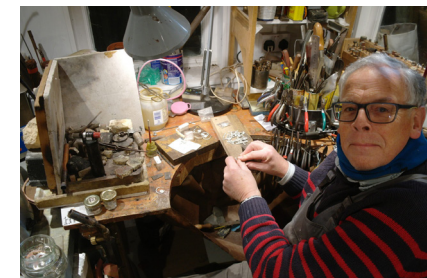

Michael is indirectly influenced by both natural and mechanical forms, but more simply is inspired by the basic design elements of shape, line, colour, tone, texture, pattern and form. Both silver and gold are extremely malleable and ductile metals, capable of being formed, textured, patterned and highly polished. He aims to exploit these intrinsic qualities in the materials he uses.

Directions: Off the A811 Stirling to Dumbarton road. Gargunnoch is seven miles west of Stirling. With the flagpole and memorial to your right pass over the bridge towards Main Street. Bridgend is the first house over the bridge, on the left hand side.

I7 Diana Hand

Painting, Drawing,
Textiles

Diana loves to work freely to express her own energy and that of her favourite subject, the horse. Her paintings are also the outcome of much careful preparation, study and experiment as she moves between realism and abstraction to find the essential feeling of her subject. Her current work develops images and thoughts inspired by the horses she encounters in daily life. Demonstrations daily.

Directions: Take A811 from Stirling 6 miles to roundabout near Kippen. Turn right past Woodhouse north onto B822, follow road across valley about 2 miles. Turn left at farmhouse (FVAB signs here). Continue down track to Easter Poldar farm (No dogs please).

I8 Libby Yule

Painting,
Printmaking, Textiles

Libby is a painter and printmaker. She trained in textile design at Scottish College of Textiles. Her work ranges from abstracts and seascapes to views of Stirling Castle. Favourite mediums are acrylic, watercolours, pen and wash. Libby tutors individual and group classes on painting and gelatine mono printing, sharing her creativity and enthusiasm for art. Please contact for details.

I9

Robin Chapman Campbell & Hermione Spencer

Painting

Part of the Northland House Collective. Robin has been producing art since his years at Chelsea School of Art. He has a range of styles and for this year's Artbeat he will be showing his unique allegorical characters.

Hermione studied art with John Crawford RSA & The Glasgow School of Art. She draws inspiration from the wild west coast of Scotland and the magnificent countryside where she lives.

Directions: B826 Doune to Thornhill and follow signs on right after the cemetery

20

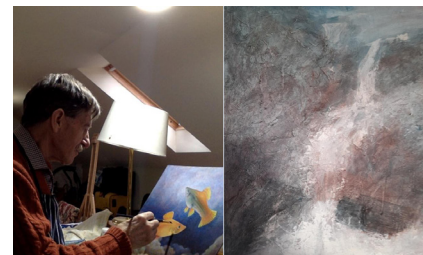

Mark Drury & Jane Buchanan

Jewellery, Painting

Part of the Northland House Collective. Mark, sometime painter and jewellery up-cycler. Trained at Glasgow School of Art & Jo Pudelko's jewellery school in Dunblane. Mark gives all proceeds from his work to Starthcaron Hospice.

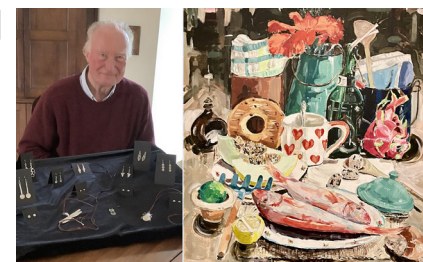

Jane graduated from Gray's School of Art with BA(Hons) and has exhibited nationally. Using a vibrant palette, she paints seascapes, landscapes, still lifes & kids toys.

21 Maurie Jessett, Alistair Dickson & Judy Shaw Stewart

Painting, Ceramics, Mixed Media

A varied and colourful selection paintings and ceramics are on display. There is a wide range of Alistairs' pottery in his spacious studio, including plates, bowls, mugs and jugs. Maurie paints mostly landscapes, capturing the woods and countryside around her, in a slightly abstract way. Judy likes to capture everyday scenes and objects, experimenting with colourful mixed media and printing.

22 Camphill Blair Drummond

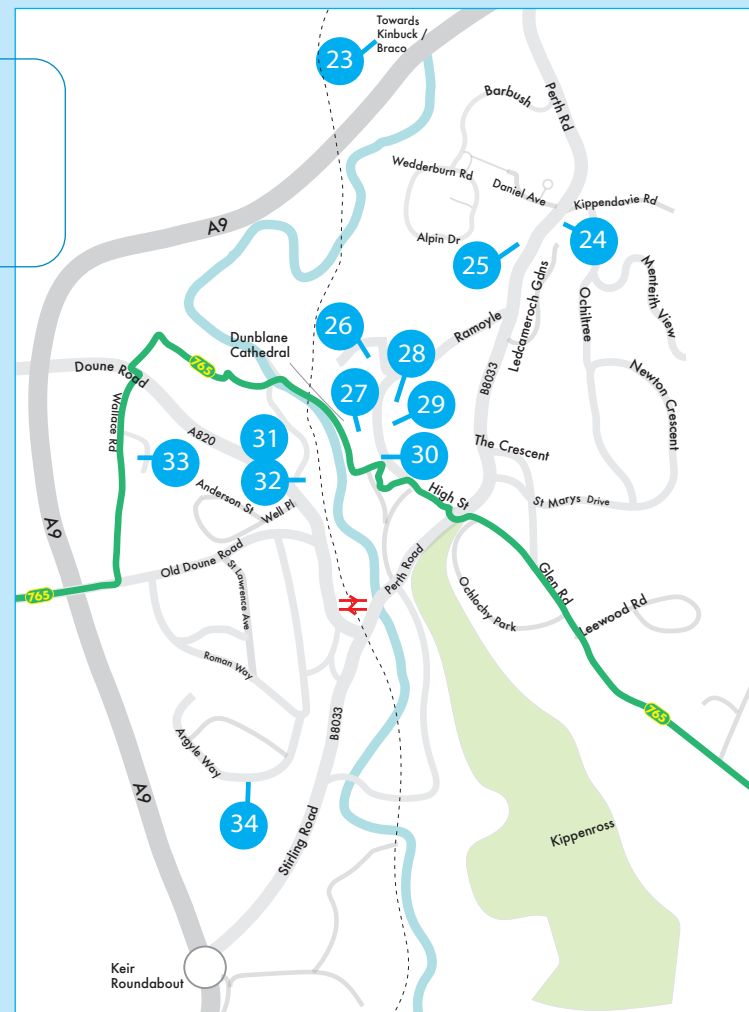

All crafts

We will be exhibiting a wide variety of work created in our specialist craft activity areas including glasswork, textiles, pottery, woodwork and paper crafts.

Our workshops provide a creative and therapeutic environment for both residential and day students with complex learning difficulties.

Directions: From Stirling take A84 towards Callander. About 3/4 mile past Safari Park (on right) turn right signposted Private road, Camphill, Cuthill Brae. Straight on over hill, cattle grid and round to second cattle grid - beware speed bumps

23 Lys Hansen

Painting, Drawing

Lys welcomes visitors to her studio to browse her recent works.

[full text awaited]

Directions: Braco is on the A822 off the A9 just north of Dunblane. Smiddy Brae is in the centre of the village beside the hotel/restaurant. Look for the life sized blue horse-head on the gable.

24 Laura Gill

Painting, Drawing

A warm welcome awaits at Daisy Cottage Studio, where Laura works landscapes and commissions in oils and acrylics. See around the working studio, finished pieces, prints and visit The Loo-vre Gallery (Scotland's smallest?). This year Laura appeared on Landscape Artist of the Year and was listed for The Scottish Portrait Awards, adding to her growing list of achievements.

Directions: From south, take Dunblane at the Keir Roundabout (B8033), past M&S on right, to The Fourways Roundabout - keep straight on Daisy Cottage is approx 1/3 mile on right. From North (A9) take Dunblane off-ramp & follow road to first Cottage on left.

25 Jane Dunbar

Painting, Mixed Media,
Weaving

Jane has been painting in w/c and acrylic, inspired by travels in Scotland and around the world (Morocco -Myanmar). On Colonsay Isle she tries to capture the old island life and fabulous seascapes contrasting with volunteering in a monastery orphanage in Myanmar (presently suspended due to coup). The exhibition is to raise money for refugees and orphans there. Browse her cluttered garden studio.

Directions: Walk down the gravel drive about 12 feet before the north bound bus layby. The second house down is Colonsay and the Art Studio is on the left through the garden gate nearest the main road. Parking only on the main Perth Rd. Not at house.

Paula Burns

Painting, Drawing, Printmaking

This is Paula's first time displaying her art work. Painting and printing in her spare time, she is inspired by the changing seasons in her local landscape; capturing views of local wetlands, the Ochils and the Southern Highlands. On high days and holidays she even ventures to the coast for inspiration! She works with screen-print, watercolour, acrylics and mixed media.

Directions: Easily accessible from Dunblane train station or from the motorway. Situated in the corner of a cul-de-sac, there's plenty of on-street parking at the entrance to our street.

Digital Art, Video,
Photography

Ann invites you to visit her eclectic studio and garden with its quirky sculptures.

Try painting with mud or creating your own AI (artificially generated images) paintings.

Or join one of her storytelling projects.

Her aim is to offer visitors an immersive experience where they also contribute to the artwork on display.

Directions: Entering Bridge of Allan from Keir roundabout motorway, take first left after crossing bridge into Blairforkie Drive. Follow signs to Bridge of Allan golf club. Plaka studios 200 yards from club. From Stirling take first right after AllanWater cafe.

36 Carol Nelson

Ceramics, Printmaking,
Pyrography

Three craft activities - Ceramics, Lino Printing and Pyrography, are exhibited in workshop and garden. Small stoneware sculptures, including figures and abstract subjects. Lino printmaking gives a wider variety of colour and shapes (musicians, and abstract). My pyrography is about burning a design, fitted to the shape of bamboo or wood artefact. Each craft has different challenges.

37 Pam McGibbon

Jewellery, Glass

Unique jewellery, handcrafted from wire and glass beads that have been created by some of the UK's most talented and original bead designers. Every piece is unique. Casual or smart, our jewellery is perfect for all occasions. Hold the beads up to the light and you will be amazed by what you can see inside! Buy ready-made or choose your own beads for a beautiful and unique bespoke design.

Directions: Locate No 45 Fountain Road and walk up beside No 45 until you reach the end of the drive. No 47 is the first house on the left. You will see bunting on the way. Disabled visitors can drive in and park, but there is room for only one car at a time.

38 Art Collection, University of Stirling

Various

The University of Stirling Art Collection is a varied one. Artworks from the permanent collection are on display throughout the Pathfoot Building, with sculpture in courtyards and across the scenic campus. In addition, our temporary exhibitions, which are directly inspired by the research themes of the University, this year focus on 'Space and Place'.

Directions: The Pathfoot Building is on the hill on your left immediately after entering the University of Stirling campus by the main gate.

52 Lesley Anne Derks

Painting, Drawing,
Mixed Media

Lesley Anne Derks graduated from Glasgow School of Art in 1999. She paints predominantly cityscapes at night and has exhibited extensively throughout the UK and abroad. She is always researching new techniques and materials in order to further enhance her 'already unique,' interpretation of light, examples of which will be on display in her studio.

Directions: Camelon to Larbert: Pass the golf course on left, continue along Stirling Road, turn left at the viaduct and drive to the end of the estate. Larbert cross to Camelon: Turn right under the viaduct, drive towards the end of the estate.

54 Antonine Silver Jewellery

Jewellery

Come visit Elaine - otherwise known as Antonine Silver - in her garden conservatory and home studio to see where the magic happens. Most of her pieces are one-off, inspired by local landscape and history. As well as beautiful silver, she loves to experiment with new materials including enamel and recycled cans to create bright, fun decorative pieces. Commissions welcome.

55 Barbara Rae

Painting

EAST and WEST - 20 May-10 September 2023. This renowned artist shows works drawn from two Scottish sources - Leith Docks (East) and the Atlantic coastline (West). This duality sets off a range of contrasts between the man-made and the natural; the industrial and the geological. Within this dual format there is a wide variety of approaches & techniques, from large canvas paintings to small paper sketches, many never shown before.

Directions: From Edinburgh: Follow M9 westbound. Exit at J5 and follow brown and white tourist signage for Callendar House & Park. From Glasgow: Follow M80/ A80 eastbound. Join M876 Merge onto M9, Exit J6 follow signs for Callendar House & Park.

56 Elaine Reid & Liz Love

Textiles, Painting, Printmaking

Liz and Elaine set up their Grangemouth studio in 2021. Liz creates acrylic paintings and lino prints. Elaine produces needle-felted and wet-felted pieces. Visitors will be able to view a wide range of the artists pieces and chat to them about their work. Beginners workshops will be available to pre-book during the open days event.

Directions: From Edinburgh, take the M9 and exit at junction 5 and then follow the A905 then B9132. Turn left into Talbot St. Free parking is available at B&M. From Glasgow take the M8, merge on to the M9 and follow the instructions as above.

57 Jane Charlton, Hilary Brown, Anne Nicholson & Pat Swan

Textiles, Painting, Mixed Media

Jane and Pat both work with textiles, print, paper and stitch. Jane takes her inspiration from the urban environment and Pat is influenced by travelling and her love of photography. Hilary paints mainly in acrylic and oils and is inspired by the land and seascapes of Scotland. Anne finds inspiration in the surrounding countryside and creates her landscapes and artists books primarily with inks.

Directions: Westbound from Linlithgow High St/station - along High St, past West Port Hotel on right, straight across roundabout. Over brow of hill, turn right at post box into Highfield Ave. Straight to the top, turn right, No.26 on right. Studio round back.
